

Parent Educator: Strong Families Consultant

The Parenting Place, a strength-based and family-friendly non-profit providing services to area families, seeks a full-time, benefited (37.5 hours per week) Strong Families Consultant. This position will build partnerships with family-serving organizations throughout the region; meet parents as they use community resources to secure food, housing or other concrete supports; and team with parents to build upon family strengths and protective factors. The Strong Families Consultant works to support parents who might not otherwise use our services and programs. Training in evidence-based parenting approaches will be provided. Qualifications include education and/or experience in child development or family systems and experience working directly with parents. Candidates with two year degrees and lived experience are encouraged to apply. Some evening and weekend hours are required. For more information or to submit a resume and cover letter, please contact Marilyn at 608-784-8125, ext. 231 or marilynhuckenpoehler@theparentingplace.net
