- Public Service Loan Forgiveness Program employer.

Position Summary:

As the Recovery Support Specialist, you will function independently, acting as a bridge between staff and residents, and between residents and the community. You will provide insight and communication designed to meet individuals where they are and enhance their understanding of issues which may be detrimental to their future success. You will lead by example, demonstrating and emphasizing the value of all persons; employing trauma-informed care and recovery principles and philosophy in all interactions and offering encouragement and motivation based on the individual's interests and goals. Additional duties include:

- Collaborating with WRC staff to facilitate opportunities for residents to participate in recovery programming.

- Helping to create and provide peer support opportunities to WRC residents.
- Enhancing and broadening staff understanding of resident perspective through education/training and committee participation.

Salary Information:

The starting pay is $27.50 to $32.00 per hour (approximately $57,200 to $66,500 per year), plus excellent benefits. A 12-month probationary period is required.

Pay for current or former state employees is set based upon the rules that apply to compensation for the applicable transaction. This position is classified as a Human Services Program Coordinator and is in pay schedule and range 07/04.

Job Details:

All applicants who may be appointed to this position will be required to allow DHS to conduct a background check to determine whether the circumstances of any conviction may be related to the job being filled.

All appointees will be required to receive a TB test, which will be administered by WRC or medical personnel approved by the facility within 30 days of the start date.

DHS does not sponsor work visas for this position, thus, in compliance with federal law, selected candidates will be required to verify eligibility to work in the United States by completing the required I-9 form upon hire.

Qualifications:

Minimally qualified applicants will have all of the following:

- Experience teaching or training others through self-help, peer support, recovery or incarceration.
- Experience working with justice-involved individuals (e.g., incarcerated, arrested and booked, paroled, on probation, etc.).
- Experience interpreting and applying Trauma Informed Care principles.

Well-qualified applicants will also have one or more of the following.

- Experience coordinating peer support related to mental health recovery.
- Experience working in a multi-disciplinary team (e.g., medical, social work, psychology, etc.).
- Experience working in a secure facility.
- Successful completion of the State of Wisconsin Certified Peer Specialist training.
